

A Service of Worship
Second Sunday after Epiphany
January 19, 2025
10:10 a.m., Sanctuary & Livestream

We Gather

Prelude Trumpet Voluntary John Stanley

Welcome and Concerns of the Church Dr. Whitney Bayer

Introit Divinum Mysterium Plainsong

Call to Worship Oliver Bayer

One: With God, all things are made new.

Many: We are made new creatures in Christ!

One: The mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Many: We are made new creatures in Christ!

One: The old things have passed away.

ALL: We are made new creatures in Christ! Amen.

Hymn 611 Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee HYMN TO JOY

1 Joy - ful, joy - ful, we a - dore thee, God of glo - ry, Lord of love!
 2 All thy works with joy sur-round thee; earth and heaven re-flect thy rays;
 3 Mor-tals, join the hap-py cho-rus which the morn-ing stars be-gan.

Hearts un-fold like flowers be-fore thee, o-pening to the sun a - bove.
 stars and an-gels sing a-round thee, cen - ter of un - bro - ken praise.
 Love di-vine is reign-ing o'er us, join-ing all in heav-en's plan.

Melt the clouds of sin and sad-ness; drive the dark of doubt a - way.
 Field and for-est, vale and moun-tain, flower-y mead-ow, flash - ing sea,
 Ev - er sing-ing, march we on-ward, vic - tors in the midst of strife.

Giv - er of im - mor-tal glad-ness, fill us with the light of day.
 chant - ing bird and flow-ing foun-tain, call us to re - joice in thee.
 Joy - ful mu - sic leads us sun-ward in the tri-umph song of life.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Dr. Bayer

You have blessed us with a variety of gifts, Holy God, but we are reluctant to share. We hoard what is most valuable and make excuses for ourselves when called to share. The Spirit has blessed each of us uniquely, but we hide our light under a bushel and fail to rise to our potential. God, forgive us and embolden us. Help us to claim our gifts and put them to good use. Amen.

Assurance of God's Grace

Dr. Bayer

Response of Praise

No. 582

*Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me,
 and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,*

*and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.*

We Hear and Respond to the Word

Church Family Moment

Rebecca Guzman

1. Don't resist the temptation to illustrate this story with some good old-fashioned Kool-Aid! They even make the kind now where you can just put a few drops into the bottom of an empty pitcher and then fill it with water, or you can use the powdered kind. Of course, this is not a miracle, but it is a lot of fun to imagine what it was like for the disciples to witness this miracle!
2. Illustrate this story. Make sure to include facial expressions for the people when they realized that Jesus had performed his first miracle! You can use anything you want to draw and color.
3. Listen to a readaloud of Fancy Nancy and the Wedding of the Century by Jane O'Connor. Nancy attends her uncle's wedding, and it isn't as fancy as she had hoped it would be. Still, she can share some of her own joy and creativity. Weddings are often occasions when lots of things can go wrong, but there is joy in the celebration. Why do you think Jesus' first miracle is at a wedding feast? What could this tell us about who Jesus is?
4. Journal, considering the following:
 - a) Why do you think Mary told Jesus to do something about the problem? What does he say? What is interesting about this interaction?
 - b) Share some of your favorite wedding memories, or if you are too young to have been to many weddings, ask the grown-ups in your life to share some of their wedding memories.
 - c) What would you have thought if you were a servant or guest at the wedding?

Children's Liturgy

Rebecca Guzman

As the children four years old through third grade gather for Children's Worship, the congregation is invited to sing (hymn no. 19):

God of great and God of small, God of one and God of all,
God of weak and God of strong, God to whom all things belong,
Alleluia, alleluia, praise be to your name.

Congregation: God be with you there.

Children: God be with you here.

The children will return to join their families following the sermon.

Prayer for Illumination

Dr. Bayer

First Reading

Isaiah 62:1-5

Dr. Bayer

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Anthem

O Love

Elaine Hagenberg

Chancel Choir; Jill Deanne Fung, cello; Ann Carney, piano

*O Love that will not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe,
That in thy ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.
O Joy that seeks me through pain,
I cannot close my heart to thee;
I trace the rainbow through the rain,
And feel the promise is not vain,
That morn shall tearless be.*

Second Reading

John 2:1-11

Dr. Matthew S. Brown

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

One: This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Sermon

More Than a Party Trick

Dr. Brown

The Affirmation of Faith (unison) The Confession of 1967: 9.54-55

Rev. Lindsey Odom

Biblical visions and images of the rule of Christ, such as a heavenly city, the household of God, a new heaven and earth, a marriage feast, and an unending day culminate in the image of the kingdom. The kingdom represents the triumph of God over all that resists the divine will and disrupts God's creation. Already God's reign is present as a ferment in the world, stirring hope in people and preparing the world to receive its ultimate judgment and redemption.

With an urgency born of this hope, the church applies itself to present tasks and strives for a better world. It does not identify limited progress with the kingdom of God on earth, nor does it despair in the face of disappointment and defeat. In steadfast hope, the church looks beyond all partial achievement to the final triumph of God.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Rev. Odom

. . . (unison) Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

Elizabeth Glover

Generous God, just as Jesus transformed water into wine at the wedding in Cana, we ask you to bless and transform these gifts that we offer today. May they become a source of joy, hope, and abundance for those in need, reflecting the miracle of your love in our lives. Use these offerings to reveal your glory and draw others closer to you. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

Closing Prayer

Gayle Ireland

*Congregational Response

Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place,

I can feel his mighty power and his grace.

I can hear the brush of angels' wings, I see glory on each face.

Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place.

Welcome Team: Lorri Hattenhauer, Paul Hattenhauer, Kathy Rasimas

This morning, our worship is centered around the theme of the wedding at Cana, where Jesus performed His first miracle. As we reflect on this powerful moment in Scripture, our music celebrates the joy, love, and transformation found in Christ's presence through pieces normally heard at weddings. Join us as we lift our voices in worship, drawing inspiration from the biblical wedding to deepen our understanding of God's love and faithfulness.

Welcome to South Mecklenburg Presbyterian Church! If you are joining us in person or online, are a first-time visitor, a long-term member, or anything in between, we are glad that you are worshiping with us and we want to stay connected with you. To receive our emails, sent on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, contact Adrienne Jaquith, Office and Database Manager, adrienne@smpchome.org.
