A Service of Worship

Baptism of the Lord

January 11, 2026

10:10 a.m., Sanctuary & Livestream

We Gather

Prelude Improvisation on "Shall We Gather at the River" Richard Elliott

Welcome and Concerns of the Church Dr. Sandy Hull

The Lord be with you. And also with you!

Introit I've Got Peace Like a River African American spiritual

Call to Worship Paxtyn Sandeen

One: Come and see: Jesus invites us to join him on the journey.

All: We gather to follow Jesus wherever he leads us.

One: I wonder what Jesus wants us to see.

All: We see a table and baptismal font, reminders of God's grace.

One: I wonder whom Jesus wants us to see.

All: We see God's beloved children, gathered together to worship, and God's beloved children on the margins, too often unseen, unheard, and uncared for.

One: Come and see: we're going on a journey—together, with our Lord.

All: Let us worship the one who names and claims us through baptism and empowers and equips us to do God's work in the world.

Hymn 39

 Morning by morning, new mercies I see.
 All I have needed thy hand hath provide.
 Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Rev. Lindsey Odom

Merciful God, in baptism you joined us to the body of Christ, promising us forgiveness of sin and newness of life. But we fail to live as forgiven people. We keep destructive habits and hold grudges; we allow our past to hold us hostage and are reluctant to welcome newness. In your loving kindness, cleanse us from sin. Remind us of the promises you have made to us in baptism, so that we may live as your people, claimed in the waters of promise.

Assurance of God's Grace (Titus 3:4-5)

Rev. Odom

One: "When the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit."
Friends, hear and believe God's good news:

All: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

Response of Praise

Baptized in water, sealed by the Spirit, dead in the tomb with Christ our King; one with his rising, freed and forgiven, thankfully now God's praises we sing.

We Hear and Respond to the Word

Church Family Moment Rebecca Guzman

1. Story Connection: Today we are thinking about baptism and why it matters. Megan Argabrite at Storypath suggests that a helpful story is Always by Alison McGhee and Pascal Lemaitre. You can watch the readaloud here. In the story, a small dog protects the castle at all costs. When asked why, the answer is simple: "Because you live here." This connects to Isaiah 42, where God promises a servant who will bring justice with gentleness, and to Matthew 3, where Jesus is baptized and named beloved. Jesus enters the water to show love, commitment, and care for the world God loves.
2. Activity: At home, make a Baptism of Jesus Spinner from Flame Creative Kids Ministry. You print the paper, cut it out, and tape it over a straw or pencil. As you spin it, retell the story of Jesus' baptism and remember the words God speaks over him.
3. Craft: Create a self-portrait using whatever art supplies or household items you have at home. At the bottom of the picture, write the words, "God is proud of me."
4. Wonder Together:
 - a. I wonder what it felt like for Jesus to hear God call him beloved.
 - b. I wonder how baptism reminds us that we belong to God.
 - c. I wonder how knowing you are beloved might change the way you treat others.
 - d. I wonder who needs to know they are loved "always" this week.

Children's Liturgy Rebecca Guzman

As the children four years old through third grade gather for Children's Worship, the congregation is invited to sing (hymn no. 19):

God of great and God of small, God of one and God of all,
God of weak and God of strong, God to whom all things belong,
Alleluia, alleluia, praise be to your name.

Congregation: God be with you there.

Children: God be with you here.

The children will return to join their families following the sermon.

Prayer for Illumination

Rev. Melissa White

First Reading

Isaiah 42:1-4

Rev. White

Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his teaching.

Anthem

Come to the Water

arr. Lynda Hasseler

Chancel Choir; Jane Royther, soprano; Ann Carney, piano

O let all who thirst, let them come to the water. And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without price. Why should you pay the price, except for the Lord? And let all who seek, let them come to the water. And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without strife. Why should you spend your life, except for the Lord? And let all who toil, let them come to the water. And let all who are weary, let them come to the Lord: all who labor, without rest. How can your soul find rest, except for the Lord? And let all the poor, let them come to the water, bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord: bring the children without might. Easy the load and light: come to the Lord.

Second Reading

Matthew 3:13-17

Dr. Hull

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

Sermon

Wet for What?

Dr. Hull

Hymn of Response

No. 482

Baptized in water, sealed by the Spirit,
marked with the sign of Christ our King;
born of the Spirit, we are God's children;
joyfully now God's praises we sing.

Renewal of Baptism

One: Do you renounce evil, and its power in the world, which defies God's righteousness and love?

All: I do.

One: Do you renounce the ways of sin that separate you from the love of God?

All: I do.

One: Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Lord and Savior?

All: I do.

One: Do you intend to be Christ's faithful disciple, obeying his word and showing his love, to your life's end?

All: I do.

The Affirmation of Faith (unison)

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Dr. Hull

. . . (unison) Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
