*Call to Worship	Alayna Calderwood, Hannah Heath, Paxtyn Sandeen
------------------	--

One: See what love God has given us,

All: that we should be called children of God.

One: And that is what we are.

All: For each of us is created

One: with gifts to share,

All: to reflect God's goodness,

One: and to live as signs of God's hope, peace, love, and justice;

All: just as we are.

One: Because just as we are,

All: God names us and claims us beloved.

One: Just as we are,

All: God nourishes us.

One: Just as we are,

All: God sends us into the world to serve.

One: In the eyes of God,

All: we are endlessly enough! Let us worship God, Amen!

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Tuuli Ritchie, Lilliana Smigiel

God of love, you call us your children and name us beloved with a love wider than we can comprehend. Yet we confess that we do not always live like people who belong to you. We forget our identity and measure our worth against others, shaping our lives more by insecurity than by your hope. We chase acceptance and hide beneath shame and fear, forgetting that you have already claimed us as your own. We resist the transforming work of Christ within us and struggle to trust your grace. Forgive us, O God. Cleanse what is impure in us, and shape us by the hope and humility of Christ. We confess these things trusting not in ourselves, but in your abundant love.

Assurance of God's Grace

Lilliana Smigiel

One: The good news is this: God has claimed us as beloved children. We are created with purpose and are endlessly enough. God knows us fully and never gives up on us. When we confess our sin, our gracious and loving God forgives and sets us free. Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel,

All: In Jesus Christ, we are loved and forgiven. Thanks be to God.
Amen.

Response of Praise

No. 582, stanza 1

*Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me,
and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,
and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.*

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

We Hear and Respond to the Word

Church Family Moment

Lacey Cook

1. Story Connection: As a family, watch or read I Am Enough by Grace Byers. After reading, share together how this story connects with 1 John 3:1, which says, "See what love God has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are." Talk about how both the story and scripture remind us that we are God's children just as we are, held in love, growing in hope, endlessly enough.
2. Game: Have everyone crouch down small like seeds. One person calls out the phrases while everyone moves. When you hear "Held in love," hug yourself. When you hear "Children of God," stand tall. When you hear "Growing in hope," slowly stretch up high. When you hear "Just as you are," freeze. Take turns calling out the phrases and mix them up. After playing, notice all the different frozen poses and name together that none of them are wrong. This shows us there is no one right way to be God's child.

3. Craft: Work together on an “I Am Enough” craft. Invite each person to decorate their page by drawing or writing words about who they are — things they enjoy, gifts they see in themselves, people who love them, and hopes they carry. As you create, remind one another that this is not about making something perfect. It is about celebrating who God has already made you to be: children of God, held in love, growing in hope, endlessly enough.

4. Wonder Together:

- a) I wonder what it feels like to be held in love
- b) I wonder where you notice yourself growing in hope.
- c) I wonder when it is hardest to remember, “I am enough.”
- d) I wonder who might need to hear that truth from you this week.

Children’s Liturgy

Lacey Cook

As the children four years old through third grade gather for Children’s Worship, the congregation is invited to sing (hymn no. 19):

God of great and God of small, God of one and God of all,
God of weak and God of strong, God to whom all things belong,
Alleluia, alleluia, praise be to your name.

Congregation: God be with you there.

Children: God be with you here.

The children will return to join their families following the sermon.

Prayer for Illumination

Jake Zagora

First Reading

Austin Stockstill, Blake Stockstill

Psalm 34:1-10, 22

I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul makes its boast in the Lord; let the humble hear and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together. I sought the Lord, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears. Look to him, and be radiant; so your faces shall never be ashamed. This poor soul cried, and was heard by the Lord, and was saved from every trouble. The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them. O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in him. O fear the Lord, you his holy ones, for those who fear him have no want. The young lions suffer want and hunger, but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing. The Lord redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Anthem

Umoja Tunaimba

Victor Johnson

Jubilate Choir; Charleston Bates, soloist; Blythe Kinsey, piano

Umoja tunaimba! United we sing! Umoja tunaimba!

We stand as one in unity! We lift our voices and we join our hearts singing songs of justice and peace.

We stand together as the children of God bringing hope to humanity.

Imbakwa amani! Imbakwa furaha! Imbawka upendo! Imba!

We will sing for peace! We will sing of joy!

We will sing for love! We will sing!

Second Reading

1 John 3:1-3

Mason Briganti

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

One: This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

The Affirmation of Faith (unison) A Brief Statement of Faith (27-51)

Hannah Angerer, Skye Palmer

We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father. In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image, male and female, of every race and people, to live as one community. But we rebel against God; we hide from our Creator. Ignoring God's commandments, we violate the image of God in others and ourselves, accept lies as truth, exploit neighbor and nature, and threaten death to the planet entrusted to our care. We deserve God's condemnation. Yet God acts with justice and mercy to redeem creation. Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child, like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home, God is faithful still. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Owen Bickett, Jordan Booker, Grace Wooley

(Refrain) We are children of God, just as we are, held in love, growing in hope, endlessly enough.

. . . (unison) Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Doxology

*Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

Prayer of Dedication

Julia Nancarrow, Caitlin Vaughan

God of abundant love, we give these gifts as your beloved children, knowing that in your grace we are already enough. Receive them as signs of our shared life and love together as your church; called to sing and pray, to greet and give thanks, to wonder, to worship, and to serve. Use our gifts for your glory and for the good of our community and world. Purify our hearts, multiply what we offer, and continue to make us new in Christ. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.
